Come be my love
be mine tonight

come be my love and hold me tight

I kind of feel that the time is right for you to love me too

mine alone

and bring the thrills ive never known

this heart of mine will belong to only you, and not a clue

and everynight when the moonlight shines ill hold you close to this heart of mine well strike the clouds and bubble more and love love forever more and everyday you stay with me will be a day thats heavenly to make it real be the thing im dreaming of

well srike the the clouds and bubble more and love love love forever more

to make it real be the thing im dreaming of

yeah yeah come on be my love come on and be my love oh,come on and be my love
