We had a good thing going, with all our dreams fulfilled we ruled
We owned the world that we were conquering
A team that no one could touch, a force that could have changed the scene
But something big got stuck in this machine

Don't let it go
We had everything we wanted

All these years just down the drain?
We were everything we wanted to be
It's not in vain
We can't just flee

We started to move slower, and everything we tried to do
Turned into a mess that grew

So there was something growing, yeah something was wrong from the start
Just before we came apart

All these years just down the drain?
We were everything we wanted to be
It's not in vain

All these years just down the drain?
We were everything we wanted to be
It's not in vain
Why can't we agree?

Try again just a little bit more
You're just slowing things down
Let's get back to where it was before
I don't want us to drown
