Listen to me now, your world is gone never to be seen Yeah the rumours got me up, I'm looking round, wonder where you've been (Yeah, where you've been)

This is the way it's gotta go
This is the way it's gotta go, well I'm sinking all too low

And I leave myself to you
And I leave when feeling blue

I watched you fall apart, you never made a sound of what you've found
When you're shutting people out, it's your defence when you're losing all the sense (It's your defence)
This is the way it's gotta go
This is the way it's gotta go, well I'm sinking all too low

And I leave myself to you
And I leave when feeling blue
And I leave myself in your hands, hope you'll understand me too
When I leave myself to you

This is the way I'm going down [x6]

And I leave myself to you
And I leave when feeling blue
And I leave myself in your hands, hope you'll
understand me too
When I leave myself to you

And I leave myself to you
