I rise and curse the waking day
Curse the grime and curse the stains on the air
And on the skin of the bed I'm tied within Hiding from the twitch and crash
Of the mood I hear you hatch
You're the mother growing cold
You're the bath now running old
I can feel the wall between us separate the filthy scene
As I push the door aside - swallow, swallow, swallow,
smile

But it's alright, I lie, it's Ok, I lie, it's so fine, I
It's alright, I, it's Ok here's another lie, it's so fine, here's another lie, it's so oo ooo oo ooo...

I wander round the gulf between us
Wonder how I came to feel as fragile as a broken bone
As useless - I'm a broken bone
Come on let's fight let's feel alive
Come on let's fight let's feel alive
It's the only feeling I've kept towards you

That resembles any passion, any tremble, any word,
I'll take and turn it, twist and pissed-on, I'll return it Give me more, give me, I'll swallow, swallow, swallow,

But it's alright, I lie, it's Ok, I lie, it's so fine, I
It's alright, I, it's Ok here's another lie, it's so fine,
here's another lie, it's so oo ooo oo ooo...

(well that was easy waiting, everything's easy now,
And the days are oh so normal
Oh baby, how I miss you)
