Remember the past
Remember it well and forget it before it sends you to hell
What's done is done it's a natural fact
Defending it now won't bring it back
But you wait Oh you wait
To fight
Oh to fight
Bridge
Daylight turns to gold
Wan light it's all I'm after
Moonlight turns to dust
Raindrops they turn to laughter
There's too many ways to tell a tale
So you shut yourself out
Set yourself up to fail
When a random thought meets a heartfelt wish then a war begins that you'll never win
But you fight

Oh you fight
Bridge
Daylight turns to gold
Wan light it's all I'm after
Moonlight turns to dust
Teardrops they turn to laughter
Chorus
Take these broken arrows (x 3)
Give it back (x 3) Give up the past
Surrender the fight and let your love go into the night
The night
Oh the night
Bridge
Daylight turns to gold
Wan light it's all I'm after
Moonlight turns to dust
Teardrops they turn to laughter
Chorus
Take these broken arrows (x 8)
Give it back (x 4)
