It's just that there was I Put any last tide to the kitchen sink and I thought this stuff's so kind to my hands
I'm never going to change
To a different brand and on a different day
We found a small boat and rode it away
And you said your life's too good to be true, I think I'll ruin it for you
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet
And dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
And make a wish
Walking under the table
A sun goes down on a snoozing town
And teas still warming it slowly steams
And I think
This must be the kitchen of my dreams
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet and dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet and dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
Make a wish
On a different day
We found a small car and drove it away
And you said your life's too good to be true, I think I'll
ruin it for you
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet
And dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
Dream kitchen is starting to shine
And all I can wonder why
This stuff's so kind to my hands
To my hands
To my hair

Why don't you
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet and dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
Take a seat in this dream kitchen
You can wipe your feet and dry your hair
And if you make a wish in this dream kitchen
It won't get you anywhere
Make a wish
