"I'm Not Going"

"I'm Not Going" is one of those songs that never gets the final touch, lyric-, arrange- or melody-wise. It has a quite groovy, pseudo bluesy 9/8 riff which might be used in future tunes, we'll see...

The lyrics are pure bullocks and have no point whatsoever. There are even some meaningless Swedish words and sentences thrown in here and there. I simply didn't have anything written down except for the chorus which goes like:

"Hey, better be on your way
I'm not going"

Nevertheless, it's always fun to hear stuff in its very raw form. Hope you appreciate it.
