I travel incognito all around
Got a special profession, the world is my playground
So what do you for a living? I can hear you ask
Well, I just couldn't tell you, it's a secret task

So, it doesn't matter what you do or say
No, it doesn't matter, got to go away
Hate to disappoint you, but I just can't stay
So, it doesn't matter what you do or say

Don't wanna get too personal, it's just not my style
Have to be on the edge and always be mobile
But I admit I have prediliction for skyscrapers
And in my rare leisure hours I collect newspapers

But, it doesn't matter what you do or say
No, it doesn't matter, got to go away
Hate to disappoint you, but I just can't stay
So, it doesn't matter what you do or say

You don't have to worry, I'll always be no one to you
Somebody stole my blanket and my papers too
I've got a steady pnemonia and an infected eye
Spend my days watching you driving by

So, it doesn't matter what you do or say
No, it doesn't matter, got to go away
Hate to disappoint you, but I just can't stay
So, it doesn't matter what you do or say
