All I need to
Is to find out if I still really want to Continue I don't know if it's too late
But I think this is the best thing we can do
For both me and you

You still be everything
I know that I ever wanted
And everything that I ever needed
But it doesn't mean that this is the end
This is not the end

All I want is just a little more time
A little more time
Just a little more time
All I want is some time
A little more time
A little more time
To make up my mind

do do...

It's not a bad thing
I would never do anything to hurt you
And I know you really felt the same way too
I keep telling myself you didn't mean to
But I forgive you

though you hurt me
But I really hope that one day you will see
The reason why I breathe is just for you and me
But it doesn't mean that this is the end
This is not the end

All I want is just a little more time
A little more time
Just a little more time
All I want is some time
A little more time
A little more time
To make up my mind

All I wanted was some time to make up my mind
Ohh? and I do really hope that we could work it out Cause love like ours is hard to find

Ohh?

do do..

All I wanted was some time to make up my mind
Ohh?(x2)
