Today is not more than another day
And we're here alone trying to be somebody
Pulling our souls in a depression
Great man that knows the world
Show me why are we alive?
And where is the sunshine?
But you can say...

It's only one another day

Tomorrow we'll see others grouching from their lives
And we'll make they cry 'cause
We foud a motivation or not?
They'll read our mind and try to change
But they wrong and don't give a chance
And go away

It's only one another day
