My heart is broken and it's not my fault
Goes down everytime no reason to laugh
I put my trust trough of you
If only I knew the result I would not to do

Actually it's so unbelievable
But I suppose it undeniable
I'm hurted I'm hurteed

Then I could live in peace without your face
My pain is increasing and I can't stop hating
It's all made for you and you never gonna know
I'm singing this sad song in a little rock show

Actually it's so unbelievable
But I suppose it undeniable
I'm hurted I'm hurteed

I mean hurt you but you did it first
I keep in my mind It's sounds like a waste
So what's wrong? what we will gonna say?
To cry alone behind these lonely days

Actually it's so unbelievable
But I suppose it undeniable
I'm hurted I'm hurteed

Actually it's so unbelievable
But I suppose it undeniable
I'm hurted I'm hurteed
