I'm owner of my lies I'm owner of my life
If you cannot be yours!
You surely will not be mine

I'm owner of my face I'm owner of my fates
You have to love yourself
But if you don't just hate

You can't buy my respect and you don't have any kind of power over me
You want someone down on his knees I'm the last one that you will see

I'm owner of words I'm owner of my world
If I were feeling alone
I would just fuck a whore

I'm owner of my mind I'm owner of all kind
They want to see the truth
But everyone is blind

You can't buy my respect and you don't have any kind
of power over me
You want someone down on his knees I'm the last one
that you will see

I'm owner of my pain I'm owner of it again
If I were afraid of you
I would never play in my band

I'm owner of my dish I'm owner of my kiss
And now that I'm on top
She begs to be my bitch!

You can't buy my respect and you don't have any kind
of power over me
You want someone down on his knees I'm the last one
that you will see
