Take easy and close your eyes
'Cause everything will be alright
Fall in sleep and dream with me
When you wake up I hope you see

You're my little daughter today
When you grow up don't go away

Our love is like a butterfly
Born crawling but going to fly
Tears, it's rolling in your face
With a great feeling of daze

A beautiful place for us to stay
If it's lie I will not to say
Don't care about they'll to think
If we can't get some good things

Don't be afraid dad is with you
The bad no one can to do
But someday you'll walk free
Please I beg don't forget me

You're my little daughter today
When you grow up don't go away
