You make me live
I wanna say Epharisto

I wanna write you a song so you'll understand
All that you see in my eyes and read in my hand
Is what I honestly feel
This time I know that it's for real
And till I find the right way
This is what I wanna say

Epharisto
For all the love you give
And the way you make me live
I'll say the only word I know
Epharisto
I thank the stars above
For this everlasting love
I wanna say epharisto

You are to me like the sun so warm in the sky
You are like sweet summer rain as soft as a sigh
You're like the ocean so deep rocking me gently in my sleep
Don't know where I'm gonna start
So I'll just say from the heart

Epharisto
For all the love you give
And the way you make me live
I'll say the only word I know
Epharisto
I thank the stars above
For this everlasting love

I say from my heart for your love
Epharisto
For all the love you give
And the way you make me live
I'll say the only word I know
Epharisto
I thank the stars above

I wanna say Efharisto
