I wake up in the morning while you're still asleep
I wipe away another tear from your cheek
This is not the first time you've been crying in your sleep

I know that you're affected by what people say
But I can promise you there will come a day
As long as we're together, our love will find a way

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
Without a trace, a secret place
Where nothing stands in our way

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
To someplace far, the shining star
The two of us all alone

We were born and raised in two different worlds
Separated by our faith and belief
Our love was not accepted but we were meant to be

And even if they tried to tear our love apart
You and I will always share the same heart
There's nothing they can do 'cause this is our destiny

I'll give up my life just to be with you
I'll take you wherever you want me to

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
Without a trace, a secret place
Where nothing stands in our way

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
To someplace far, the shining star
The two of us all alone

You, you and I, love belongs to you
You and I, love belongs to us

I'll give up my life if you want me to
I'll take you where ever you want to go
Where you want to go

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
To someplace far, the shining star
The two of us all alone

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
Without a trace, a secret place
Where nothing stands in our way

I would love to run away with you
I wish that I could run away with you
To someplace far, the shining star
The two of us all alone, run away
