You, you make all my dreams come true

Another time, a lesson learned
Another one, I crashed and burned
But I believe there is someone for everyone
A small cafe and lots of noise
A crowded place but just one voice
And from that moment I saw your face
I just knew....

You, you make all my dreams come true
An angel smiled at me
The finest thing I've seen

(Baby)
You, you make all my dreams come true
A shining star I see
That heaven sent to me
That heaven sent to me...

I've been ignored, I've been deceived
I hardly enjoyed the goals I achieved
And what's the meaning of success
That you can't share
Although I'm used to be apart
I'll never get used to a broken heart
But when I see you I gladly
Take that risk again
You, you make all my dreams come true
An angel smiled at me
The finest thing I've seen

(Baby)
You, you make all my dreams come true
A shining star I see
That heaven sent to me
That heaven sent to me...

You...

I fell in love with you today
I fell in love when I first saw you

And I hope you'll see me too
And if you don't I do, understand
And that is ok, but I have never Felt this way

You, you make all my dreams come true
An angel smiled at me
The finest thing I've seen
Baby you, you make all my dreams come true
A shining star I see
That heaven sent to me
That heaven sent to me

You...
You...

You, you make all my dream come true
I hope and I believe
That we are meant to be
