(verse 1)

got to be somethin' about this time of year unless everybody acts just a little more sincere there nothing like steppin outside to exchange a neighbors smile just shakin' hands a little longer maybe talk a while your trakin' bags down the street makin' time to speak to every body that you meet takin a cruise through the old neighborhood everything is decorated and its all good

(chorus)

i wish that christmas would be everyday let it go on and on and on and on and on why does this feeling have to go away if it were up to me the season would never change it would always stay the same

(verse 2)

had to stop over at moms crib the other day cuz shes getting older now gotta make sure shes okay
a smile and a hug would do her heart some good just chillin with family on christmas like a family should i am greatfull for all that god has given me im compeled to go and help somebody else in need come back home and in for the night tellin the kids the seasons really all about christ

(chorus)

(chorus 2)

the same the same
why cant we show each other the same love
the same the same
good love real love to me once a year is really not enough

(chorus 2x)
