From amidst the pain
I can hear the cries of dying nations
For a thousand years
They've been calling out for sweet salvation

Channel

And time after time
They've put it all on the line
For the promise of a much better way
But their eyes fill with tears as the joy turns to fear
As they watch it all just drifting away
If they could only hear me when I say

Chorus

I believe that His loving arms
Are waiting to hold them forever
I believe that His faithful heart
Is calling them out of the cold

In a dark, cold world
There's a lonely girl whose heart is breaking There's a boy who seeks
And his mind is ripe just for the taking

Channel

They learn what they can
From whatever's at hand
With the promise of a much better way
But when life doesn't change, and the struggles
remain
Still God is there to work through the pain
If they could only feel His warm embrace

Repeat Chorus

Channel

And time after time

We put it all on the line
For the promise of a much better way
But when life doesn't change, and the struggles
remain
Still God is there to work through the pain
If we can feel His warm embrace

Repeat
