Why downcast oh, my soul
Having a heavy heart in hand
Knowing full His promise still remains

That He would safely guide
If on His shoulders I would lean
And in His perfect will I would remain

The battle rages on
And weakens my confidence
Confusion urges me to curse the day

But when I patient wait
Under the shadow of His wing
Then I softly hear the Spirit say

The peace that passes on
All your understanding
Shall guard your heart and mind
Through Christ Jesus

The peace that passes on
All your understanding
Shall guard your heart and mind
Through Christ Jesus

The peace that passes on
All your understanding
Shall guard your heart and mind
Through Christ Jesus

The peace that passes on
All your understanding
Shall guard your heart and mind
Through Christ Jesus
