Praise 3x's

Lord i stand before you once again im so glad that i know you understand i done everything i know how to do and as usual i end up crying out to you i tryed so hard to do my best but i dont feel like i'll make it through this test i cant remember feeling so much pain and my tears keep falling like the pooring rain i try to force myself to wear a smile but its just not there this pain im feeling deep inside my heart seems so unfare
it really feels like i wont make it through another day so i stand before you with a broken heart and all i can say is precious Lord please take my hand
(do you know what im talking about out there) (please Lord)
help me stand (help me to stand,please help me now) see i cant front Lord standing here today cause i stumbled here there along the way im praying even as i sing this song Lord for my breakthrough i hope it wont be to long
i try to force myself to wear a smile but its just not there this pain im feeling deep down inside my heart seem so unfare
this time i feel like i wont make it through another day so i come before you with a broken heart and all i can say is precious Lord ehhh....
take my hand
(would you do that,would you please do that for me) (lead me on,lead me on help me stand (help me to stand,help me to stand)
