Who can find a treasure like you? just like finding a diamond so rare there's a beat when you come in the room from your walk and the bounce of your hair cause it's your eyes (and the peace that they display) and it's your smile girl (that takes my breath away) it's your heart (that loves deeper than the sea) now and your mine and the words that come to me is... you're so

You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful

Now it's your style girl that creates the moment but it's the way that you think that intrigues and when your heart reaches out to the heavens God really listens

because you never never never (wanna cause no harm) and your ways your ways (are beautiful and more) and when you speak girl (you know just what to say) and if you haven't been told let me tell you today

You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, (sooooo)
you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, (God made you girl) you're so beautiful, (And if you need to be told) you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful,

Love really flows from your heart and the essence of you is so sweet and inside is the truth of your way and you deserve all the love you can handle

You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful,
you're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, Beautiful...

When I looked in the mirror, didn't always see somebody beautiful looking back at me, but then love came along made me realize that the girl in the mirror was beautiful all the time it's the way you walk, girl (you're so beautiful) and the way you talk girl (you're so beautiful) the way you smile girl (you're so beautiful), beautiful (you're so beautiful) beautiful
