I'm a rocket I'm a dirty angel, I can liberate your mind
Like a comet flying high above you
Looking down on your disguise

When all of the people laugh what would you say
Laughing in lemon eyes blowing your mind away
You were the only one cloud in the sky
Flying in loneliness kissing the world good bye
Living a single life

Do you hear me, can you see right through me
I'm the prophet in your eyes,
Isolation on the path you've chosen
Don't forget where I belong

Chorus

And in the sun there was a bright reflection
Of the colors, I love the ones I see
Like rivers in the rain, you were the one to suffer
You're falling out on me

Chorus repeat
