In my life I couldnt see the wood for the trees
I couldnt see what was happening to my life
In my life I've seen a lot of things you see
I turned left when I should have turned right
Oh my life

So long so long you've made my day
Hello, hello to sunny days
So long to all the bad times
Good times have been a long long time coming

Repeat

Yesterday, I was a man who wore a frown
Now I feel like I've touched down, to the ground
I used to hide away, just to pass the time of the day
Now I know what was happening to my life

So long so long you've made my day
Hello, hello to sunny days
So long to all the bad times
Good times have been a long long time coming

Chorus repeat
