Moonlight sets the stage for our private show
A musician plays a song I've never known
And the melody just takes my breath away
Now that you've mesmerized me, won't you stay?
Play my heart's strings
Strum my body with your mind
I'm your instrument
Let's make beautiful music all night
Feel the percussion
Two hearts beat in perfect time
Feel your rhythm
Let's make beautiful music all night
Tonight
Two so entwined in harmony
Filling the night with so much ecstasy
Each encore gets better than the last
Baby, let the music play, that's all I ask
Play my heart's strings
Strum my body with your mind
I'm your instrument
Let's make beautiful music all night
Feel the percussion
Two hearts beat in perfect time
Feel your rhythm
Let's make beautiful music all night
Play my heart's strings
Strum my body with your mind
I'm your instrument
Let's make beautiful music all night
Feel the percussion
Two hearts beat in perfect time
Feel your rhythm
Let's make beautiful music all night
Tonight
Tonight
(Play my heart's strings) Play my heart's strings
Let's have our own private symphony
And the melody just takes my breath away
Now that you've mesmerized me, won't you stay?
Play my heart's strings
Strum my body with your mind

I'm your instrument
Let's make beautiful music all night
Feel the percussion
Two hearts beat in perfect time
Feel your rhythm
Let's make beautiful music all night
(repeat and fade out)
