Lady loved and lady cared
But lady went away
And left him all alone to suffer
And now I feel it's not fair
For me to fall in love
The real truth is here to uncover

Seems so long
Since I heard the sound
And it's been so long
Since I've trusted in someone else
Had to see it for myself
And it's been so long
That the world seems cold
But I think it's time in my life to find myself again

Lady loved and lady stayed
Until she was too pleased
She knew he wouldn't leave her to suffer
He never make her suffer
Now I believe you're just like me
That you understand
You want him for your man to always love him

Can't you believe it's been so long
Since I touch a wanting hand?
And ohhhh, ohhhh, it's been so long
Since I've trusted in someone else
Had to see this one for myself
And it's been so long
That the world seems cold
Now I think that I found someone
To make me trust in someone again---
