To every other guy, with the perfect ten
Fun is what I've seen since I don't know when You should be on the cover of Essence magazine
You could be on stage like a super model beauty queen

Yes, you could, babe
They should treat you like a star
This is what you truly are
Believe me, baby
You can do so much better

You don't have to be somebody else
You got me now, baby, baby
If you only need
You'll never be incognito

They should treat you like you were a pearl
But that girl is only special, girl
I'm used to wifey material
You should know that it ain't that serious about you, baby

He is acting like you don't exist
I'm looking number one upon my list
Believe me you can do much better

You don't have to be somebody else
Incognito
If you only need
You'll never be incognito, oh, baby

I'll do anything to get with you
Just call me I'll be right there
Girl, you know that he's not right for you
You're right for me

You don't have to be somebody else
Incognito, no, no, baby
If you only need
You'll never be incognito

I will love you more than my buddies

Leave them all the girls for you honey
Turn my life around if you want me
Quit the saddle down if you want me

Be your entourage in a minute
Parking your garage if you willing Always take you there when I hit it
Anything that you want I can get it
