Though it's been a year
I remember when I first heard your name
Janay, still I get the rush
That I get that day I laid eyes on you

Janay
Memories floatin' my mind seems like yesterday
It chills up and down my spine
How can I go on feeling this way?
How can I go on another day?

Janay, Janay, how could something so right go so wrong?
Janay, how could I let your beauty slip away?
Janay, to get you back there is nothing I would not pay
Janay

When I think back on, on the good times
That I shared with you, Janay
Oh, it makes me sad 'cause you're somewhere else
There is nothing I can do, Janay

Janay
Memories floatin' my mind seems like yesterday
It chills up and down my spine
How can I go on feeling this way?
How can I go on another day?

Janay, Janay, how could something so right go so
wrong?
Janay, how could I let your beauty slip away?
Janay, to get you back there is nothing I would not pay
Janay
