Watching the sun going down tonight
Noone but you and I
Trying so hard to forget the truth
It's time to say goodbye
I don't know how baby I don't know when I only know that I will see you again
Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
Do you really know why I love you so
Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
There's a paradise in your spanish eyes
I can't forget how you looked last night
I can't forget your smile
Why can't we stay when it feels so right
I don't want to say goodbye
Guilty of love baby that's how i plea
I don't anyone else that I need

Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
Do you really know why I love you so
Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
There's a paradise in your spanish eyes
What I feel inside when you whisper tender words to me
How can we deny, this is how it was supposed to be
Tell me to stay baby it's not too late
Over and over I know I can't wait
I can't wait
Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
Do you really know why I love you so
Mi amor mi amor te quiero mi amor
There's a paradise in your spanish eyes
There's a paradise in your spanish eyes
