Tell me why you want to go and why you feel so bad Tell me cause I need to know the reason why you're sad
I will try to guide you and make things right
The road we share is long and steep the ocean cold and deep Forget all the tears and sorrow, I'll show you the world
tomorrow
I'll be where you are right now but I made it through somehow I'll tell you a different story, we're lost without hope and glory
You'll see tomorrow here with me
I don't know where trouble goes, I don't what to say Why it harms the sweetest roads, where trouble lives today
I will always hold you no matter what This narrow road was made for two, was made for me and you Forget all the tears and sorrow, I'll show you the world
tomorrow
I'll be where you are right now but I made it through
somehow

I'll tell you a different story, we're lost without hope and
glory
You'll see tomorrow here with me
Hope you know I'll understand I was freed by my own hand
In a different story Hope and glory
You and me
Forget all the tears and sorrow, I'll show you the world
tomorrow
I'll be where you are right now but I made it through
somehow
I'll tell you a different story, we're lost without hope and
glory
You'll see tomorrow here with me
Forget all the tears and sorrow, I'll show you the world
tomorrow
I'll be where you are right now but I made it through

somehow
I'll tell you a different story, we're lost without hope and
glory
You'll see tomorrow here with me
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
You'll see tomorrow here with me
