i could use a holiday. winter showed up early, sunk its teeth in. and i can't shake it away. i'd like to learn how to surf. and there's a million other things. i'd better learn how to swim first. i feel stuck and i'm only twenty-seven. guess i'm closer to thirty than i am to forgiven. i could use a holiday. winter showed up early, sunk its teeth in. and i can't shake it away. i could use a cigarette. there's a million other things. i twenty years i'm gonna regret. i feel stuck and i'm only twenty-seven. guess i'm closer to thirty than i am to forgiven
