Vrs 1.

You tell the world Morning/
Sipping on coffee/
Strolling in an office/
Sitting down to log in/
Seeing where your boss is/
Worked hard to get up/
And catch the 94 bus/
On the way to Linden/
And still had to transfer/
30 minutes on time/
Suckered in to clock in/
Now something's feeling awkward/â€¡That sums it up, you realized what your job is/
Sucking on cock, and you're not really off it/
Money there is decent/
Something you could freak with/
But you can't pretend, that your feeling free there/
Life is but a beach chair chilling at the beach, yeah/Quit school, now who's Professor X up in the wheelchair/

Crippling decisions, huh?/

Handicap when you get, down to the wire/

Like Jamie on the Violin/

Following your dreams they don't see what your motive is/

Rather play it out on your own, play the soloist/

Sounds gooder than vocalist, but no intent/

To say fuck it, get it over with it/

Food in your mouth so that ass feel it owe them shit/

Little bread on the shit sandwich kept you closed lipped/

Bridge

Don't, don't, don't explain/

I know I'm wrong for staying/

Hoping by holding on/

Things will changeâ€;/

Hook

I don't want to talk no more/

I ain't try'na waste my time/

I don't want talk no more/

I don't want to waste my time/

Vrs 2.

Your affliction occurred/

In your addiction to her/

Your inquisitive nerve/

Now in need of a nurse/

You agreed to release her /

In hopes please/
Conceded then breached terms/
A turn for the worst/
Marcus Houston, living in the past/
Immature Batman/
Dark night's ass/
It's been a couple months/
Still she hasn't asked/
Through a phone call or text if you needed ass/
Your not concerned about her feelings/
Or even how she's healings /
You still seem to lust what you once had/
The aggression inside, you hide feelings well/
But now obsession resides in where you don't delve/
Scared of being intimate/
Only close to a screen/
Love via internet/
Broadband TLC/
Got you chasing waterfalls/
The way your looking up streams/
For a clip of a chick/
Like the woman in your dreams/
