goddamn! that girl is dynamite. her tongue is sharper than a flick knife. she doesn't like our stupid indie songs. she makes my heartbeat like a kickdrum. its me and you or me and my drums. or something like that. but its never never never enough. to keep me happy. she had a baby son. wraps me round her little finger just like bubblegum. she's gonna start her own rock band. boys are heartless how could they understand? its me and you or me and my drums. or something like that. but its never never never enough. to keep me happy. goddamn! that girl is dynamite. her tongue is sharper than a flick knife. she doesn't like our stupid indie songs. she makes my heartbeat like a kickdrum. its me and you or me and my drums. or something like that. but its never never never enough. to keep me happy. she's got a new boyfriend now
