When the moon is rising
Of the night

With a silver shining light
Waking up the angels
And they turn the key
Open up the gates to life
To heaven
Teach me right from wrong

Enlight me, take me,
Far beyond the open sky
Lifes last eternally
See their shine through

The eyes of the world
Flying high, on wings of eternity
Flying high, away from reality
See their shine through
The eyes of the world
Every day and every night

I'm drowning in illusions
Dancing with the demons of my life

Mankind endangered

On a path of no return
Enlight me, carry me,
World has gone astray
Take me to the universe
Lifes last eternally

Flying high, on wings of eternity
See their shine through
The eyes of the world
Flying high, away from reality
See their shine through

The eyes of the world
A heavenly kingdom divine
Time has come for my glory ride

Flying high

Flying high, on wings of eternity
The eyes of the world
Flying high, away from reality
See their shine through
See their shine through
The eyes of the world
