[EP Version]

When it's night on earth
I'm longing for the days
All the tears in my heart, driving me insane

Running free, breaking from our chains away

And smell the wine of paradise

Agony is the price we have to pay

Suffering in pain

Enthroned the darkness spreads it's claws

Tries to catch you now and evil calls

Coldness falls on us My dreams are turning grey

Tears for all my memories fade away

Take our hands and break down the walls of hate - hopeles
Come and save us from our deadly fate

Kingdom - save us

And then the kingdom will come
Spread our wings to the sun

To a dreamworld we fly

See a shine in the sky
And then the kingdom will come

Take a ferry to the sun

In the name of the crown

We'll never go down

When the kingdom forces are calling
Then the hell will haunt us nevermore

And the world will remain in silence

The sun will shine forervermore
