My world around me
Lies down so cold and bare
I'm a stranger in this emptiness
Close to deep despair

Where are the sun rays
That light my barren soul
Hear my silent
Cry

At the end of the sunset, the night is closing in
I'm prayin' to the queen of the moon
Send me an angel on my way to the sea of tears
Be the path of my destiny

If the quest lasts forever
Out there in the void
Bring the eyes of creation
Back to my world

I'm your master, master of the night
Evil Pastor, devil in disguise
Save us, save us, guardian of the light
Save us, save us, lead us home tonight

I'm the master, master of the night
Evil laughter, death personified
Save us, save us, be our guiding light
Save us, save us, bring us back to paradise

Will my quest last forever?
Out there in the world
I'm searchin'
The eyes of the world

And I pray for salvation
I can hear the children cry
Bring back paradise
Back to my world

Until your quest is finally over, I'm waiting in the night
And in the end your soul will be my price

I'll take you far away from time, straight into my world
You will stay forever more, here in chains

Through the crystal I see, my tears
I see human life, a world in harmony
Hear the children crying, so clear
They are callin' from the sky

Will my quest last forever?
Out there in the world
I'm searchin'
The eyes of the world

And I pray for salvation
I can hear the children cry
Bring back paradise
Back to my world
