Everything you need to be
Is everything you are
Some things you can't learn
They've got to flow from the heart
Space and time control your mind
Until you dare to start
And when you hit that note
You're gonna tear it apart.

We were born to it (When you really get the vibe)
Drawn to it (And you really feel alive)
On to it,
But once it's near

You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
But you already knew it
You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
Don't hide what you've got inside
You're born, born, born to it

Ah yea
Ah yea, ah
Yea baby, check this
Hit the note and,
Control time and
Peel up, reel up,
Bring it back on rewind and
Fix what needs to be fixed
So we can be wix
So we can just play the remix

Be who you wanna be
Live how you wanna live
Play what you wanna play,
And you gotta lot to give

Girl play the violin

Let love begin
From, deep within
Turning enemy to friend

We were born to it (When we really get the vibe)
Drawn to it (And we really feel alive)
On to it,
But once it's near
(Too ready? Haha! You can feel it in the air)

You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
But you already knew it
You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
Don't hide what you've got inside
You're born, born, born to it

It's Mostart and I'm so so wix
Mantyz hit my knee
If you wanna see tricks
Like a reflex
Out come the decks I mix
Bringing out the brand new lix for kicks
I'm so sick rated
We've got game for gates
But we never ever knew before the accolade

Baby Comaco's beat
Comato's win the most
Start brings a riot
And it might not go bust

Everything you need to be
Is everything you are
Some things you can't learn
They've got to flow from the heart
Space and time control your mind
Until you dare to start
And when you hit that note
You're gonna tear it apart.

We were born to it (When we really get the vibe)
Drawn to it (And we really feel alive)
On to it,
But once it's near

You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)

(You can turn time, you can turn time)
But you already knew it
You can turn time
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
(You can turn time, you can turn time)
Don't hide what you've got inside
You're born, born, born to it
