Music sounds in my ear.
There are bricks for my view.
I hear the train pass.
Now I'm sure that I miss you.
But I'll keep my head and I'll try.
And I know this will pass by and by.
By and by.

I made some coffee and I overheard the neighbors too.
Sometimes they laugh sometimes they scream.
It all reminds me of you.
But I don't worry anyway,
After all you are so far away.
So far away.

Sometimes sadness feels happy.
Sometimes sadness keeps my head.
Sometimes it helps me to get by.
Maybe I don't make much sense.
But I know I'm gonna try.
But I know this will pass by and by.
By and by.

Now I know I'm gonna try
And I know this will pass by and by.
