Hey...

I remember the day I found her
You know it was just like magic
The way things happened
Oh, so natural

She smiles so sweetly
And I fell completely
And the words from her lips
Filled with such tenderness that I could not resist

[Chorus:]

Don't you know the girls so right for me
Everything we do just comes so easily
The girls so right for me...
There in this lonely world I found the girl that's right for me

Sunday morning
The day is starting
And we're wrap around each other
Perfect lovers under the covers baby

The way that my heart is beating
This gotta be the real thing
And it's hand and the glove
Baby this kind of love
I know that she still want

(Repeat Chorus)

I thought that I have good love before
Baby to you I feel it all
And darling you should be something
That day by day you keep that coming

Don't you know the girls so right for me
Everything we do just comes so easily
The girls so right for me...
There in this lonely world I found the girl that's right for
me

And the girl so right for me
Yeah
Everything we do...
You know the girl...
Hey...
In this lonely world I found the girl so right for me

[Repeat till fade]
