[spoken]

In the tradition of the inner city griots we are... we take though a journey through a story to a place and a time in a small town but as you listen you're to pay no mind to the small town and the time and the place a place where the moon and the sun does as it pleases a place where everybody knows everybody else's business a place that basically could be anywhere listen...

check it out...

[Aceyalone]

When the sun took a day off and the moon stood still The only light that was in sight was the one just past that ol' onion field if you look from where I'm standing you'll see that old scarecrow they say if you look too low he might jump off that window but between you and me I think that's a bunch of 'hey, you know'
some people believe he's responsible for the death of Old Man Dan
they found him without his thinking cap with straw in his hand and the strangest thing about it's that they never found his head
they never found his head
god dammit they never found Old Man Dan's head...

[Self Jupiter]

and they'll never find it
'cause I took it nah, didn't go like that at all see I just hid it and his eye was crooked and I wanted his eyeball and things got out of hand and Old Man Dan had to die because of that eye I can tell you them scarecrow stories a lie what I did here when the moon was full and the sun's about to rise people walking by thinking about that head at the crack of dawn they cry
