it's the year 2003

and we facin off and we got what it takes to ball if you got what it takes for D bitch when you leave the bench bring your ball game

????

don't got what it takes to play it's NBA we break the rim post up and shoot the J get the rebound do it again

HE SCORES that's two more points added to the score board wave to the croud actin all wild didn't see my coach took it over ???? got a flagrant foul

OUCH that hurt a little but i got what it takes to win cross over then i work the middle take mine shoot from the line wound up scorin again

(memphis bleek)

they call me EA Bleek cuz i'm in the game i play zone D nobody don't drive the lane can't knock when i'm hot stop pull up J or cross em over to the paint all day uh thread the needle like magic in his prime trust you gotta foul me send me to the line cuz it's free throws yo and i'm good with those off the glass the Free he's good with those and the star camped out gettin housed around
