(k. crooker, j.gamache)

tell me, retired tennis pro was it actually so long ago that you held aloft a shiny trophy cup and waved to the crowds in the stands up above there's some stuff that I really wanna know some small piece of advice that you don't mind letting

go tell me, tell me, retired tennis pro you're getting older and slower every day it was best to quit while you still could play so you took the cue and bowed out gracefully and I see you every now and then on my tv

there's some stuff that I really wanna know
there's some stuff that I really have to know tell me, tell me, tell me, retired tennis pro the hot sun beats down upon the clay do you think back and reminisce about those days?

is it a relief? are you cool with being done? winning is a whole lot easier when you're young

there's some stuff that I really have to know tell me, tell me, tell me (2x)
