"I don't want this anymore"
Is all I heard her say
As I grabbed my stuff
And headed out the door

With my music in my phones
And my bike under my feet
Things started to look different
As I got out on the street

Sometimes I see her face
In the new people that I meet
We're not who we thought we were
When we saw this dream

Sometimes when I just can't sleep
I hear the words you said to me
"How did you get so deep inside of me?"

I wake up and I move on
I admit the past is gone
I wake up and I refine
Moving forward to the next lifetime
I leave it all behind

Sometimes when I just can't sleep
I hear the words you said to me
"Sometimes it takes a painful loss
To realize you are free"

How did you get so deep inside of me?
How did you get so deep inside of me?
