When we were two brothers forever in the dark and light
We had our fights against the world, against each other
We traveled in the night
So many roads, so many shows together
Far apart from we grew, isolated, but still together

When we were two brothers forever through the dark and light
We had our fights against ourselves, against each other
We were afraid, afraid of so many things
It was a fight to overcome ourselves and see clearer

We are two brothers forever in the dark and light
We had our fights against the world, against each
other
Time has opened my heart,
I don't wanna hold onto that past
I don't wanna live in isolation anymore

There's nothing left to do, but to kiss that life goodbye
Goodbye...
Goodbye...
Goodbye...

We are two brothers forever through the darkened light
We had our fights against ourselves, against each
other

Goodbye...
Goodbye...
