I remember when everything looked up a logs
At a river bed
That we couldn't cross
And the way the drums they all kept me up at night
I could barely close my eyes before the day arrived
Oh the way that we rowed
And keep laughing
Maybe we'll never know
What comes after if we
Say so long for now
I'll see you if we're gone
So long for now
I'll see you when we're gone

Every day every night
Counting up the cause
I'd give everything we have
Just to get across
And the night drags on
And the light's all gone
But there's one more song
We might sing if you want

Oh keep laughing
Maybe we'll never know
What comes after if we stay
So long for now
I'll see you if we're gone
Say so long for now
I'll see you when we're gone

Baby after all that's said
So long for now
I'll see you if we're gone
So long for now
I'll see you when we're gone.
