Hey brother across the border Let's proclaim our new Order We come from the lands of the ice and snow It's our Home where the north winds blow!

We're Norsemen in a Norseland We salute you with an open Hand With bloodlines that run so deep Our spirits are Awakening from their sleep Arise now my Nordic troops
To
The iron heel we'll never stoop The land of the gods we Shall reclaim And no fucking border will stop our aim.

We're from the Northlands of the ice and snow Where you
Can feel the winds of Odin blow. A land so fertile where The rivers flow This is the only life that I wanna know

Odin- hear our cry! Men of the north will never die For Blood and soil on our sacred ground We're gonna bring the Hammer down.

Now in our lands there is something fowl You can hear the Wolves starting to howl A plot is out to destroy our Creed In our hands spawns a demon seed To separate us
From our past is it's aim To divide and conquer is their Game Well they can bring it on, they can bring it forth Hell hath no fury as the men of the north.

We're from the Northlands of the ice and snow Where
you
Can feel the winds of Odin blow A land so fertile where The rivers flow This is the only life that I wanna know.
