A message to those who agitate I'll show you the true Meaning of hate. A message to those who aggravate
Fuck

With me and I'll seal your fate. Your kiss ass ethics
Enough to drive me berserk Never in your life did you Know the meaning of work Rich little college boy living Off your parent's wealth You try to dictate our lives,
But now I'll dictate your health I'n gonna explode...

So here I stand on the White House steps I've got no
Conscience and I've got no regrets My tolerance is Overloaded with your apathy You're blind leading the Blind, but your not leading me It's a message to those
Out there This walking Time Bomb no longer cares For Years and years you tried to make me bend But now
the
Wick is lit and my fuse is to an end!

You're just like a shepherd leading the sheep Making Promises that you just can't keep Just like pied piper
Leading the rats Playing your tune while your wallets
Get fat Your nothing but a puppet in a 3 piece suit
Your strings are pulled by special interest groups Pressure's coming down so you pass another law You try
To bring us down but there's just one flaw I'm still Alive...

So here I stand on the White House steps I've got no
Conscience and I've got no regrets My tolerance is Overloaded with your apathy You're blind leading the Blind, but your not leading me It's a message to those
Out there This walking Time Bomb no longer cares For Years and years you tried to make me bend But now
the
Wick is lit and my fuse is to an end!
