here you come to calmly kill the drum behind my eyes
when water turns to solid
call out to passersby
when bullets turn to splinters
you are something you have something

drum behind my eyes (eye-eye)
when water turns to solid
call out to passersby
when bullets turn to splinters
you have nothing

drum behind my eyes (eye-eye, eye-eye)
when water turns to solid call out to passersby, call out to passersby you aren't something you want, you aren't

drum behind my eyes (eye-eye, eye-eye)
call out to passersby
want something

call out to passersby
when bullets turn to splinters
you have my heart
you are my mind

call out to passersby
when bullets turn to splinters
you have my heart

call out to passersby
something (ah-ah)

call out to passersby
i have nothing, i have nothing
