The telephone's a terrorist
I'm not even listening
I'm walking with an audience
What isn't an accident

Suddenly here the worst words
Explode into love at my ear
I'm waiting to hear the worst words
Explode into love at my ear

This is not my skin
I was invited in
A sweeter singer
Than anything

Suddenly here the worst words
Explode into love at my ear
What's worse than my fears
The worst words explode

Fear is my atmosphere
Falling is frightening
I don't know what you're doing here
You are like my lightning

Suddenly here the worst words
Explode into love at my ear
Suddenly pure the worst words
Explode into love at my ear

Worst words explode
