Head is up your arsehole as you move along
Walk around pretending that there is nothing wrong
Don't like thinking of whose getting your rent or Environment, religion or the government

My car's running well on human blood
Olympics build on toxic mud
Whose gonna keep it so clean and tidy
And who plays the keyboards in 'Killing Heidi'

Not trying to tell you to do nothing about it
If there is something to say don't say it, shout it
I used to think the worst thing was my foot rot
Stupid me, then my heart stopped

Now everything is, everything is, everything
Everything's fucked

People searching endlessly for someone to believe
Everyone is addicted to Real TV
Environmental fuck ups everyday of the month
What happens, when the Prime Minister is a racist cunt

The gap is ever widening, the rich and the poor
People go to prison just for breaking the law
TV is not the same without Mike Whitney
Well roll me over and call me Brittney, oops

Now everything is, everything is, everything
Everything's fucked

Not trying to tell you to do nothing about it
If there is something to say don't say it shout it
I used to think the worst thing was my chest cough
Stupid me, then my heart stopped

Now everything is, everything is, everything
Everything's fucked
Everything is, everything is, everything
Everything's fucked
