I don't know but I got told, that if I'm sad, heart in the cold
There only the one bran of emotions
And if I don't quite look the part, you'll tell me not to even start
So fuck you and your fucken emo band
Now I'm all for identity
The desperate need for a place to be Understood well, feeling loved But mixing exclusivity That's three parts you and no parts we Now your ego's getting out hand
Like Jesus at a show, I don't wanna know Never stretched a helping hand
So fuck you and your fucken emo band
I fear it won't take long till that hillsong Reaches me somehow, but if there's thing I despise It's being fed those right wing lies So fuck you and your fucken Christian band
I think it's cool they're not on drugs
The moral grounding and the hugs
And being friends with some god's son

But when no-one questions anything, use the word for financial gain Then somethings gotten way out of hand
Like Jesus at a show, I don't wanna know
"never build your house on sand" and fuck you and your fucken Christian band Emotions have been sold its only Rock and Roll you're no better than your fans fuck you and your fucken emo faith is in some dodgy hands fuck you and your fucken Christian if this is too hard on you, my band's fucken stupid too fuck you and your fucken punk rock, retro, indie cock rock STUPID BAND...
